

MARK SADLER

Can you fill in the blanks to name these three other Australian animals?

K _ A L _      G _ A N _ A      D I N _ O

Find Mark Sadler's work
Lost from the Mob.

What do you think the artwork title, Lost from the Mob means?

Think of an Australian themed name that you could give to each of these Kangaroos

Mark Sadler
Lost from the Mob
2013 dimensions variable
red raku fired to mid range
with underglazes

GRAHAM TOOMEY

Find Graham Toomey's work Star Tracks.

Name the shapes you can see in see in this artwork

How do you think people use the stars to guide them to a particular place?

How do the stars and night sky make you feel?

Graham Toomey
Star Tracks
2013
101 x 167 cm
acrylic on canvas

PARLIAMENT OF
NEW SOUTH WALES ABORIGINAL
ART PRIZE
2013

ART TRAIL

CECILY WELLINGTON-CARPENTER

Cecily
Wellington-Carpenter
My Country: Shoalhaven
74 x 104 cm
acrylic paint and wood-burning on wood

Find Cecily Wellington-Carpenter’s work
My Country: Shoalhaven.

This artwork shows creatures that can be found under the sea. What other creatures could you also find here?

The artist lives by the sea. What kind of environment do you live near?

BETHANY HOUGH

Find Bethany Hough’s work, work, The webs that connect me to you

The ‘webs’ and connections in this work represent the artists link to her family and culture.

How does this artwork make you feel? Think of some descriptive words. (Hint: happy, light, free)

Thinking of your family and culture, draw your own webs and lines of connections in the space below.

Bethany Hough
The webs that connect me to you 2013
90 x 70 cm
watercolour and ink on paper

CASSANDRA & JANNALI JONES

Find Cassandra & Jannali
Jones’ work Sister.

Cassandra & Jannali Jones
Sister
59.4 x 42 cm
collaborative multimedia work

This work is made by two sisters who like to create artworks together. What do you like to do with your family?

If you were to take a photograph of someone in your family, who would it be and

Write a short poem
about the person
you selected

